

Insignia Technology Services, LLC Kicks Off Its Annual Internship Program

Newport News, VA., July 18, 2018 – Insignia Technology Services, LLC, a provider of information technology solutions and services to our Federal and Commercial customers, kicks off its annual Internship Program.

This year Insignia welcomes 4 interns from Christopher Newport University, Fordham University, and Radford University. Each one of our interns have a diverse background with concentrations that vary from communications, finance, information systems (IS), and industrial-organizational psychology. Throughout the duration of their internship at Insignia they have supported various domains including: Business Development, Vendor Management, Contracts, and Compliance.

About Insignia Technology Services, LLC

Insignia Technology Services, LLC is a leading provider of information technology solutions and services to our Federal and Commercial customers. We specialize in full Systems Development Life Cycle support of complex, Enterprise-class IT systems running in mission-critical, high-availability environments.